

A day out in the region

Family adventure awaits in Aberdeenshire

In this itinerary:

- Trellis Cafe
- Newburgh Beach
- Seaton Park
- Marischal Square

Trellis Cafe

📍 Ellon

Start the day right at Trellis cafe. Located in Ellon, it is just a short drive from Aberdeen City.

With a delicious menu filled with tea, coffee and juices along with breakfast delights such as pastries, French toast and filled rolls. It's a great place to fuel for the day ahead for families of all ages.

Newburgh Beach

📍 Ellon

Where the River Ythan meets the sea; the breathtaking sand dunes and miles of golden beach creates the perfect walk. If you cast your gaze to the opposite bank there is a large colony of around 400 seals which make the shoreline their home. They can safely be observed from this distance. Fantastic for families of all ages, children and adults alike will love watching the seals going about their daily business. It can be both a cute and comical sight to behold!

Transition Extreme

📍 Aberdeen City

After a drive into the city, you're off to Transition Extreme, an extreme sports centre fit for all ages.

With an array of different adrenaline pumping activities from indoor rock climbing and bouldering to outdoor aerial assault courses there is definitely something for everyone.

Marischal Square

📍 Aberdeen City

After a day of activities, you and the family are sure to have built up an appetite. We recommend heading to Marischal Square to enjoy a hearty meal made with the finest local produce from Maggie's Grill.

Located just across the square, be sure to try our local Mackie's ice cream. A sure winner for all the family.
